

FETTERS CASE DECISION

George Feters Wins On Appeal To Circuit Court of Appeals. Wife's Attorneys Will Carry Her Case Up To Supreme Court.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals has set aside the conviction and sentence of George Feters who with his wife was tried over a year ago in Sacramento on a charge of selling liquor to enlisted men under the war Emergency Act and found guilty after an exciting trial. Mrs. Feters conviction was sustained. The conviction followed testimony brought out by the defense that the resort proprietors had been entrapped into selling liquor which was latter drank by the sailors at the Feters dance pavilion. Geo. Feters testimony to the effect that he filled the order at the club house believing the bootleg liquor to be for Mrs. Duffy Lewis was not admitted as evidence by Judge Van Fleet at the Sacramento hearing although Feters sought to testify in his wife's behalf to this effect.

The reversal of Judge Van Fleet on this important point opens the way for an appeal by Mrs. Feters's attorney to the U. S. Supreme Court, whence her case will be carried.

Judge Van Fleet was recently reversed in a similar case when it was shown that the defendant, a woman, had been prevailed upon for hours to sell the liquor before she consented to do so. It is generally thought that the intelligence department of which Duffy Lewis was a member were trying to "get the goods" on Mrs. Feters for months before the successful coup in which Mrs. Duffy Lewis was the central figure.

Concerning the Circuit Court of Appeals ruling in the Feters' case the S. F. Chronicle of Tuesday said: "The Circuit Court of Appeals sustained the conviction of Mrs. Feters, who was sentenced to nine months imprisonment. The reversal in the case of Feters was based on a point made by Marshal Woodworth, attorney for Feters, that Judge Van Fleet committed error in ruling out testimony tending to show that Feters believed the liquor was to be sold to Mrs. Duffy Lewis and not to sailors."

SOLDIER RETURNS HOME VIA AFRICA

Harry Andrieux, who left here last June for Camp Kearney and went to France shortly thereafter, is home after service with the 116th Ammunition Train. The armistice was signed before he got to the front but he had many interesting experiences while abroad and traveled widely. Andrieux had two furloughs and visited Paris, Antwerp, Belgium, Lille and Coblentz.

He left France in June on the French boat Roma and returned to the good old U. S. A. via Oran, Africa, where he was held up for five days in port on account of a coal strike.

The young soldier brought home many interesting souvenirs. Among them a rare collection of coins from foreign countries, among them a rare Arabian coin which he got in Africa, also French, Belgium, Greek, Spanish and Italian pieces.

After a visit here with relatives, Harry is going back into the shipping business in the bay region.

CONCLUDES INTERESTING EPISODES OF WAR

In this issue is concluded the log of the U. S. S. Leviathan and its trips with American troops over seas during the recent war. We wish to thank Mr. W. D. Foley, Chief Machinists Mate U. S. N. R. F. for placing this real history at the disposal of the Index Tribune.

The wonderful performances of the Leviathan during the war was wholly due to the manner in which the ship was handled by her officers and crew. All honor to them!

FISHING PARTY AT BODEGA

A very pleasant outing at Bodega bay was enjoyed by a number of Schellville families last Sunday who went fishing at the popular resort and had fine luck. Those in the party were the Joe Keisers, Richard Guilfoyle, Victor Clements, Dick Watts, Mrs. H. F. Bates, Miss Zolita Bates, the Tony Keisers, Jim Tate and Frank McGills. Not a puncture in the trip and a wonderful time declared all who made the motor trip.

IMPRESSIVE RITES FOR PRIEST

Beloved Pastor of St. Francis Church Buried With Ceremonies of Pontifical Requiem High Mass.

A splendid account of the funeral of Rev. T. P. Moran, beloved pastor of the St. Francis church who was stricken down in the prime of life and died from the after effect of influenza last week was written by Herbert Slater, personal friend and brother Elk of the late priest and appeared in the Press Democrat following the impressive services in San Francisco. Said the writer,

With the solemn grandeur which adds to the impressiveness of a Pontifical requiem high mass for the repose of his soul, according to the rites of the Roman Catholic Church, splendid tribute was paid the late Rev. Father T. P. Moran, rector of St. Francis church at Sonoma, and honorary chaplain of Santa Rosa Elks lodge, in the church of St. James in San Francisco on Monday morning.

Since Saturday afternoon the remains of the deceased priest had laid in state before the holy altar in the church. It was fitting that this should have been for in St. James church Father Moran had been assistant priest for a number of years and had so often himself officiated in the sacrifice of the holy mass and in the pulpit had so often preached the word of God. Hundreds upon hundreds of friends and former parishioners, prior to the commencement of the service on Monday morning, had passed around the bier and had knelt in prayer. Sunday night the clergy of the diocese gathered and said the office for the dead.

The immense church was crowded at the funeral services. The crowd thronged about the doors and out onto the sidewalks. The altars were ablaze with myriad candles. His Grace, the Most Reverend Edward J. Hanna, D. D., Archbishop of San Francisco, occupied the throne. Sitting in the sanctuary was the Very Reverend the Vicar General of the diocese and other priests. Occupying front seats in the nave were over one hundred vested clergy. Standing near the casket in all its beauty and significance, was the magnificent floral gift sent by Santa Rosa Elks Lodge. It was a massive panel of white flowers. In the center were the figures "646" in purple lettering. The size and beauty of the piece attracted everybody. There were many other floral tokens brought too.

Archbishop Hanna was the celebrant of Pontifical high mass. The Rev. Father Land was the high priest, the Rev. Father Della Hunta, of Modesto, was the deacon of the mass, the Rev. Father McKinnon, of Livermore was the subdeacon of the mass and the Rev. Father Arthur O'Connell was the master of ceremonies.

The singing and organ accompaniments were exquisitely rendered. Special soloists assisted the large choir. The requiem music added much impressiveness to the other portions of the stately service.

The sermon was preached by the Rev. Father P. R. Lynch, rector of St. James. Father Moran having served as an assistant with him for a number of years. The friendship between Father Lynch and Father Moran was very devoted. It was a tender, eloquent tribute by Father Lynch. It betokened his deep feeling of sorrow. He told the true estimate of character of the deceased, and alluded to his unswerving loyalty to duty. His address had the fitting climax, after urging everybody to remember Father Moran in their prayers: "Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon him."

Before pronouncing the Absolution Archbishop Hanna spoke a few telling words, which sank deep into all hearts. They were a rounding out of the sentiments previously spoken by Father Lynch. Then the priests, walking two by two followed the crucifer and the candle bearers out to the waiting hearse. Then ranks were opened and the casket was carried by the six priests acting as pall

Colonel Herbert Shaw, son of Mrs. Mary Shaw of this place, and distinguished medical man of the United States Army is home from France where he went with General Pershing at the outbreak of the war with Germany.

CONDUCTOR EMPARAN HELD UP

Bandit Stops Freight Enroute to San Jose and Robs Railroad Men.

The many friends of Carlos V. Emparan, Southern Pacific conductor will be interested in the thrilling experience the young railroad man had at an early hour Monday morning when his train was held up near Agnew station on the San Jose run by a masked bandit. The bandit appeared beside the train as the men uncoupled the engine which was proceeding to San Jose for water. The engine crew escaped as did also the flagman but the train robber thrust a gun into the face of Conductor Emparan and after taking $30 from him made his escape in the darkness. The hold up man also relieved two brakemen of their spare change.

The hold up of the S. P. freight was reported to the Sheriff of Santa Clara County and deputies were put on the trail of the robber described as being short of stature and wearing overalls and dark coat and hat.

CRACK SHOTS GET BUCKS

A number of local hunters brought to Sonoma on Aug. 5th two fine big bucks, one a four pointer and the other a three pointer, weighing 185 and 155 pounds. Among the party were B. F. Keechler, Louis Felder, John Brazil, Manuel Brazil and John Riebl Jr. The boys brought down these "monarchs of the woods" after a hunt of but a few hours. They are some shots and never fail to carry off the honors every year.

BODY FOUND ON TUESDAY

At noon on Tuesday the body of Theo. Eoe, aged thirty-seven, of Oakland, was recovered from the waters of Sonoma Creek at the Senator Jones ranch which is conducted by Joseph Keechler.

The deceased met his death on last Thursday when he fell from a hay barge which was loading at the ranch landing, and although a search was made for it, it was not found until Tuesday at noon.

Coroner F. H. Phillips was notified and held an inquest at 5 o'clock, the verdict being accidental death.

An Oakland undertaker named Cooper arrived via Richmond ferry with an auto hearse and took the body back to Oakland as soon as the Coroner's jury had viewed the features of the deceased.

WATER HEARING ON MONDAY

Mayor Dal Pogetto attended the hearing on the shortage of water of the Sonoma Valley Water, Light & Power Company before the Railroad Commission last Monday. Only one witness was examined W. Chester whose testimony will be transcribed and later considered by the Enceill examiners.

It is understood that Chester has promised to replace the tank at El Verano and also to lay a concrete floor in the bottom of the reservoir in the foothills hoping thereby to conserve the summer supply of water and furnish the much to be desired fire protection contracted for by the city of Sonoma.

BOYES SPRINGS BENEFIT FOR LITTLE RED DEVIL SUCCESS

A big crowd filled Boyes theatre Thursday night to show appreciation of the fire department and the chemical. "The Little Red Devil" got a substantial boost. A clever program of songs and dancing by juveniles with a wonderful picture reel was greatly enjoyed. Chief Geo. Cause spoke eloquently and thanked the people for their patronage.

High Cost Cutting

A REPORT FROM WASHINGTON D. C. states that Congress is much worried over the High Cost of Living, a very misleading statement, although in common with other mortals Congressmen probably squirms once in a while at the realization that a big American dollar has scarcely the value of 60c as things are to-day. What the report should have stated is that Congress is worried over trying to solve the problem of cutting the cost of living.

The railway employees have forced home to Uncle Sam what private corporations have been confronted with for some time past, the demand for higher wages to meet the constantly increasing cost of commodities. Private concerns were powerless to cut the cost and had to meet the demands of workers or suffer the interference of strikes. Now it remains to be seen what a factor the government can be in alleviating the delicate economic question and what effect radical action if any is taken will have upon the economic condition of the country. If the railroad service of the United States is paralyzed by labor trouble now it would spell disaster for which the government cannot afford to be held responsible. More money or lower costs, say the men. If the country does not want to keep up the ridiculous farce of going round in a circle like a dog running after its tail which is just about the performance of wages and prices chasing each other madly, Uncle Sam will call in the best economic specialists in the world to call a halt and prune prices. Although we might have a hard winter or two, the country would eventually get back on a sound basis.

Of one thing, may we be delivered, official probes, those get-no-where committee affairs which carry with them appropriations which when spent are followed by bluster and recommendation, nothing more. If perchance some safety valve is put in somewhere and some apparent evil corrected, another irregularity usually grows up in its place and mules the public worse than the first. Were it otherwise some of these wonderful freak laws put upon the statute books to correct gross injustice to the people would have converted this land into a veritable Utopia ere this.

It would seem that a crisis is being precipitated in the United States on the cost of living and wage situation and that a lot more brain work along this line has been concentrating itself outside governmental circles than in it. Unfortunately like most movements of the reformative type, whether moral or economic, the program has been worked out to the stage of forcing the crisis and then it will be up to others to do the constructive work. The United States is sitting up and taking notice of the impending crisis but from the calm of Congress the outlook of a sane swift solution is not very promising.

Retorming Japan

THE LITTLE BROWN MAN is to have the dark brown taste taken away too if Dr. Gandier has his way in Japan. He says a few years ago there was little drunkenness noticeable there but now it is a crying evil and yet he admits that it is only in recent years that Japan has arrived and emerged from a feudal state to a great industrial nation. Did Japan get the pep and initiative with the drink evil? It is possible perhaps that Turkey might arrive too if it cut out its national prohibition.

There is something peculiarly Ganderske in the closing statement of the article in a recent issue of the Liberator which says, "If ever a country needed clear brains and sound bodies and a will to control both, that country is Japan. Banishing alcohol will help to produce these fundamental necessities. If the facts about alcohol developed by science and by modern industrial and military experience are clearly presented to the ruling classes in Japan, alcohol will go." "But how shall they learn without a teacher and how shall they teach except they be sent?" "This is America's privilege and duty."

In other words reformers want the people here "to come through" to reform Japan. The foreign missionary funds subscribed in the past to promote "moral vision and spiritual appreciation" in the orient are all paltry as compared with the prodigious funds the prohibition war cry has been the means of raising. With a world wide field for "dry" workers there will be no end of campaigning for funds and no end of the string of "dry" missionaries journeying to the land of the rising sun to scrap the sake and other ardent drinks.

The Agricultural Fair

SONOMA VALLEY was one of the first communities to hold a school agricultural fair and distinguished itself along these lines throughout the State during the several annual exhibitions held at the High School. This year there is likelihood that no fair will be held by the students owing to the need for thorough organization of the school work as planned by the principal and faculty. There is no doubt but that the holding of the fairs by the younger generation stirred up a lot of interest among their elders showed the great possibilities of the idea and its value in speeding up competition among local growers and producers. The Sonoma Farm bureau members are said to have lost their interest in working through that organization otherwise it would be expected to carry out the annual custom of holding the fair providing the students were not able to do so. Who will take up the good work?

It really appears from past performances that the students have enterprise and foresight lacking in our older folks. The school organization has enabled them to do things which individuals as individuals cannot do. What Sonoma valley needs is an organization to advance its interest in what ever direction necessary—an organization which will stay organized. Necessity is constantly demanding the presence of an efficient organization and every community forging ahead these days has such a body advancing its interests and fostering enterprises vital to its welfare.

WHY THE NAKED TRUTH about marriage mistakes in the chemically pure home newspaper? A discussion of this topic has a place but savors of the salacious when used as catch bait for readers in a country weekly. It is a topic, the presentation of which is still a much mooted question but it is thoroughly agreed by eminent students of the question that promiscuous discussion of it is not to be encouraged.

Last of all should it be crudely handled by a home paper which goes to the fire sides of our families to be read and dwelt upon by its youngest members.

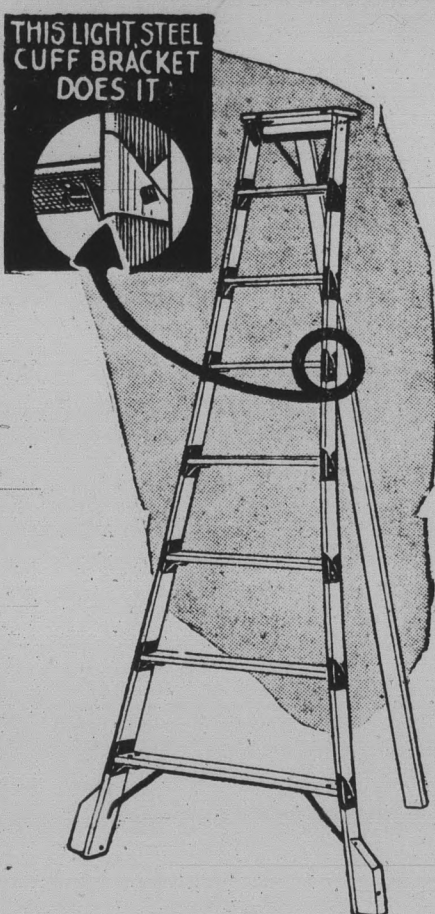

Such articles should be frowned upon for they are far from wholesome reading for our young people. Parents, teachers, mothers organizations and physicians should guide and direct on intimate topics such as this.

A muzzle or a censor is badly needed, better than either the condemnation of public opinion which is already expressing itself in no uncertain terms.

"THE WESTERNER," which is a new magazine issued weekly in San Francisco is on our desk. It's publisher and editor is Wm. Francis Hume. Pungent editorials and a spirit reflective of the real San Francisco not the city processed by new comers make a decided and good impression. We wish "The Westerner" every success in the journalistic field.

Chas. Nivet motored to San Rafael Sunday afternoon with Rev. Father Byrne and from there they went to S. F. to attend the evening prayers for the late Father Moran. Mrs. Nivet looked after the resident pastor's mother during their absence.

Mrs. S. H. Whiting and her friend Mrs. Potter came up from S. F. Saturday to the attractive cottage, Rocky Haven, the Whiting home at Boyes Springs. Mrs. Potter left for the Feather river country Thursday but Mrs. Whiting will remain here.

KEPT LOG OF WAR CRUISE

Submarines Make Supreme Effort During May and June, 1918, To Sink U. S. S. Leviathan.

June 7th, at sea making passage to New York. A vaudeville entertainment by talent from among the crew. Also boxing bouts were enjoyed by all.

June 8th, at 4:30 a. m. sighted Fire Island lightship. At 8:30 picked up pilot off Sandy Hook and proceeded through the narrows. Arrived at Hoboken N. J. at 10:30 a. m. and docked at 11:30 a. m. Sunday.

Sunday, June 9th. At Hoboken, N. J. No work going on. Divine services were held. All well.

June 10th - 12th. At Hoboken N. J. the usual routine and repair work is going on.

June 13th. On leave visiting at the home of my sister in Brooklyn N. Y. A delicious dinner was served in my honor. Greatly enjoyed.

Friday June 14th. Reported aboard Leviathan at 11:30 and immediately resumed my duties. Troops were on board and others were coming. Large quantities of stores being rushed on board. Finished coaling and taking on water. Troops all aboard. At 10 p. m. ship ready for sea.

June 15th. At Hoboken, N. J. All in readiness to sail, with sea watches set in engine and fire rooms. Got underway at 10:30 a. m. and after clearing the dock headed down the river amid the cheering of throngs of people along the docks. After passing through the narrows were joined by a convoy composed of the following viz, one destroyer, one air plane and two dirigibles. At 11:55 stopped off Sandy Hook to drop pilot and proceeded on our way. All well and on the look out for the enemy submarines. At 9 p. m. air plane and dirigible returned to base.

June 16th, - June 22nd. At sea enroute to Europe. On Saturday the 22nd off the coast of France under convoy of 4 destroyers. Speed 21 knots. At 8 a. m. one of our destroyers signaled that she could not keep up due to derangement of her machinery so she fell out of line. At 2 p. m. we arrived at Brest, France and immediately commenced disembarkation of troops etc. This was expected to be a very exciting trip but proved to be the tamest trip yet made as 'Fritz' did not show. All well.

June 23rd. At Brest, France. At 3 p. m. a fleet of 40 cargo vessels arrived with food and ammunition.

June 24th. At 6:30 p. m. got underway and steamed out on return voyage under convoy of 4 destroyers. No enemy subs sighted.

June 25th. At sea making passage to New York, speed 21 knots. At 4 p. m. our convoy departed for their base leaving us alone. At 4:20 p. m. a large sub was sighted off our port quarter. We immediately opened fire with all guns that could be brought to bear and we fired 10 shots with apparent good effect as the sub disappeared and was not seen again.

July 1st. At 5 p. m. docked at our pier in Hoboken, N. J. Leave of several days granted to one third of ship's company. July 7th, On board Leviathan making preparations to sail for Europe. Troops numbering 12,000 men reported on board.

Between this date and July 15 the log shows no exciting episodes and the Leviathan arrived at Brest once again without mishap with all our khaki lads aboard safe and sound.

On July 16th the ship was at Brest and received aboard survivors of ill fated Covington, also 200 sick and wounded soldiers.

On July 18th, the return trip was begun under usual conditions and with similar precautions as in former trips across. After a week on the water the Leviathan received warning of the presence of 16 subs off the coast and in the path of the big carrier. The course of the ship was therefore changed to the Southern route from off New Foundland to coast of Cuba. A sub was sighted but out of range and July 24th, the enemy was detected in submerging to attack but thanks to the 22 knot speed. No disaster occurred.

The end

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fuller (nee Eva Church) and Mrs. Fuller, Sr., have been spending a week at the Church ranch. Mrs. D. Church recently returned with them from a very beneficial trip to Paraiso Hot Springs.

CHANCE TO INSPECT GRAPE DRYER AT DAVIS

On August 13th the Farm Advisor and the County Horticultural Commissioner together with any other interested parties will visit the University Farm at Davis for the purpose of inspecting the grape dryer now under construction there. This dryer is being built under the direction of Professor W. V. Cruess who has made a special study of the various dryers in operation in California particularly in the region belt in the San Joaquin Valley. On August 13th the University dryer should be about half completed and a good idea can then be obtained as to the method of construction, its cost, etc. Professor Cruess will be on hand to explain the dryer and answer any questions that may be asked regarding the artificial drying of grapes or prunes.

We understand that the dryer under construction embodies several new features of importance and we believe that anyone who expects to construct a dryer this year would do well to visit Davis at this time. There is room for three persons each in the Farm Advisor's and the Horticultural Commissioner's machines, and these places will be assigned to those first applying. The machines will doubtless be available and there is no reason why several farmers in a district should not go together on this excursion.

Please let the Farm Advisor or the Horticultural Commissioner know without delay if you expect to make the trip, and plan to be on hand at the Court House, Santa Rosa, on the morning of the 13th at 8:00 o'clock sharp.

TRAMP- TRAMP! TRAMP! THE GIRLS ARE MARCH- ING BUT NOT WITH PUMPS

Several charming Agua Caliente girls who wanted to take in the dance at the Springs last Saturday night and were frowned on by watchful mamas thought they could "get away with it" by hiding their swell new pumps and silk stockings in the barn Friday night and making a grand get away. They were thrilled at the possibilities, but after passing footling out Saturday night to put on their swell kicks and finding shoes and stockings had disappeared, they became frantic and wept. The folks heard the fuss and the girls then confessed their loss. They were told a tramp had been permitted to sleep in the barn the night before and undoubtedly got away with their finery. Mother got away with the story too but the girls did not get away to the dance and they felt like getting away with the tramp until the next day when they got wise. "You can't fool these Caliente mothers" said one of the prettiest of the four, when telling the story. "Now down in Sonoma it would have been easy."

ADDITIONAL TEACHER'S ROOM AT GRAMMAR SCHOOL READY

The sixth teacher's room at the Grammar school has been equipped with the desks and other necessities for use during the next term. The Sonoma Grammar School attendance will be larger than ever and the addition of Miss McConoche as teacher in the new room will fill a much needed want for an additional instructor so that the classes will not be too large and the rooms over crowded. Miss McConoche is expected home from her vacation in the East very shortly. The Board of Trustees has decided to reopen the school on the 1st. of September.

MARTIN LEIXNER SUCCEEDS TO TAILORING BUSINESS

Martin Leixner, a high class tailor, both gentlemen and ladies has bought out the tailoring business of Al Fingers and will succeed the latter in the conduct of the shop. Cleaning and dyeing as formerly will be carefully attended to.

FILE CLAIMS FOR COYOTE SCALPS

Coyotes are becoming very bold and two were killed over the weekend. George M. Cowan of Kenwood came to the county clerk's office on Monday morning and filed his claim for $20 for the scalp of one and John Fred Johnson of Agua Caliente filed a claim for the same amount shortly after noon. He shot the animal Sunday evening on the home place near the Springs. It may be that the deer hunters are running these coyotes to the front.

A SONOMA COUNTY ATTOR- NEY MARRIED IN EAST

W. T. Mooney, the brilliant young attorney of Petaluma, was married recently in the East and with his bride will be at home to their friends in Petaluma after October the first.

The announcement of the marriage of the popular young couple was as follows:

"The Reverend Thomas Aloysius Quinlan announces the marriage of his sister, Mary Gertrude Louise, to Mr. William Thomas Mooney on Wednesday, July thirtieth, nineteen hundred and nineteen at Saint Mary's of the Assumption church, Brookline, Mass."

Mr. and Mrs. A. Clerici attended the funeral of the late Rev. Father Moran in San Francisco Monday.

LOCAL DEER HUNTERS HAVE FINE LUCK

The deer season opened here very auspiciously this week and many local hunters were proudly displaying their bucks, although rather scarce about the locations where they got a head on their quarry.

The John Dowdall-Basilou party of which Jake Steekmeyer was a member killed a beauty on the opening day.

The Dresel party came back with four fine specimens on Tuesday after a hunt of several days.

Chas. Beach got his deer not far from town and the Kechler-Felder-Brazil party had a three and four pointer on display at a local market Tuesday.

Venison "eats" have been very popular during the week. The deer meat is prepared in various styles. One of the best outside of venison a la Wicker is venison saute cooked with wine.
